Alaska Cruise and Tour

2009 Proposed Itinerary

Day 1 (Sunday) – Fly to San Francisco, CA: Today, your Alaskan adventure begins with your flight to San Francisco. Upon arrival at the San Francisco International Airport, tour members who have purchased their airline tickets from Your Man Tours, Inc., please meet your YMT representative in baggage claims for meet and greet services and transfers to the hotel. Overnight at Best Western (or similar accommodations) in South San Francisco area.

Day 2 (Monday) – City Tour of San Francisco: You truly could leave your heart here after your magnificent City Tour. Perched on the edge of the spectacular San Francisco Bay like a seagull soaring on updraft, the city is ringed by graceful bridges, lush parks, and hills bedecked with jewel-like homes. From the pointed Trans-America Pyramid downtown to Fisherman's Wharf, the Golden Gate Bridge and Pier 39, you'll see there's much to love in this romantic city. Overnight: Best Western (or similar accommodations) in the South San Francisco area.

Day 3 (Tuesday) – Travel Day to Lake Tahoe/Reno area plus Sacramento, CA: Today is a new day and a new experience on your way to Alaska. You are off to the mountains of Nevada by way of the capital of California, Sacramento, for a brief tour around the city. At the end of your day you will find yourself in one of the most scenic gaming areas of the United States—the Lake Tahoe/Reno area for your next two overnights at the Holiday Inn (or similar accommodations).

Day 4 (Wednesday) – Lake Tahoe, NV: Today is your day to see gorgeous Lake Tahoe, one of the most beautiful mountain lakes in the U.S. You will have plenty of time on your own to explore the downtown casinos and shops which make up this close-knit mountain community, or just enjoy a stroll by the crystal clear lake. Overnight: the Holiday Inn (or similar accommodations) in Lake Tahoe/Reno area.

Day 5 (Thursday) – Medford, OR: Today you will travel into the northern-most corner of California on your way to the Medford, OR area. Along the way you will travel by Mt. Shasta as well as through the Shasta/Trinity National Forest and Lassen National Forest which will add a whole new dimension to your scenic land journey. Medford, a pretty town, is located in the heart of some of the best scenery and year-round temperate weather in Oregon. Well known for its agricultural products, especially pears, Medford also offers visitors a relaxing opportunity to sightsee and enjoy outdoor activities. Overnight: Red Lion (or similar accommodations) in the Medford area.

Day 6 (Friday) – Portland, OR: This travel day through Oregon will transverse Oregon's many interesting landscapes from the college town of Eugene to the Willamette Valley. All along the way you will be able to take in this beautiful state from the comfort of your scenic cruiser coach. Portland is known as the City of Roses, and this cosmopolitan city still retains a cozy, small town feel. Surrounded by beautiful parks, hills and mountains, the area offers many museums, sightseeing opportunities and shopping venues, plus year-round skiing at nearby Mt. Hood. Overnight: Red Lion (or similar accommodations) in the Portland area.

Day 7 (Saturday) – Seattle, WA and board Norwegian Cruise Line's Norwegian Star (4:00 PM): With your land tour coming to an end and your thoughts of Alaska ever growing, there is still a land tour experience to complete on your way to the Port of Seattle. You will enjoy the views from your comfortable motor coach as you pass over the great Columbia River, travel through the beautiful valleys of southern Washington State, and even see Mt. St. Helens and Mt. Rainier in the distance. Traveling to the Port of Seattle will show you a how vibrant Seattle has become. Then, it's time to board your Norwegian Cruise Ship for the start of your Alaska and Inside Passage Cruise.

Day 8 (Sunday) – Scenic Inside Passage Cruising: When explorer John Muir first sailed the Inside Passage he could hardly tear himself away from the rail for fear of missing some new marvel. "Never before," he wrote, "have I been embosomed in scenery so hopelessly beyond description tracing shining waves through fjord and sound, past forest and waterfall, islands and mountains...." All this while you're gliding along in the lap of luxury aboard NCL's Norwegian Star.

Day 9 (Monday) – Ketchikan (7:00 AM -3:00 PM): Nicknamed "The Salmon Capital of the World," this important fishing port is also home to the world's largest collection of Native American totem poles. You can enjoy a stroll through the picturesque waterfront district of this quaint boardwalk city built on stilts, as well as the historic and former "Red Light" district amid gold shops, gift shops and restaurants.

Day 10 (Tuesday) – Juneau (7:00 AM - 2:00 PM): In Alaska's capital you may choose to taste salmon baked over an alder wood fire, pan for gold, flightsee the Juneau Icefield, Sawyer Glacier, or walk right up to Mendenhall Glacier located just outside the city limits. There are ample shore excursions to fill your day. Juneau is nestled at the feet of snowcapped Mt. Juneau and Mt. Roberts and is nicknamed "Little San Francisco" because of its narrow streets and flights of wooden steps hugging the hillside on which its multicolored houses are built. This afternoon after departing Juneau, your delightful cruise will take you to Sawyer Glacier. Dress warmly and find a place at the ship's rail to view this spectacular show. Don't forget your camera and binoculars. Your ship will creep slowly toward the glacier before stopping. Prepare to be stunned when you first glimpse the color - glacial ice is an incredible and indescribable blue. Sawyer Glacier calves constantly, shedding huge blocks of ice - so have your camera at the ready.

Day 11 (Wednesday) – Skagway (7:00 AM - 5:00 PM): Where the Gold Rush began, Skagway was the turbulent staging point for prospectors hell-bent on getting to the Klondike gold fields. Go ashore. Stroll the weathered boardwalks and drop in at old-time saloons or shop for gold nuggets. You can purchase tickets for a ride in a vintage parlor car up the historic White Horse Pass via a narrow gauge railway. Skagway has preserved the atmosphere of the 1898 gold rush better than any other town in Alaska.

Day 12 (Thursday) – Prince Rupert, BC (5:00 PM - 10:00 PM): This lovely city of rainbows is a charming port on the Inside Passage in sheltered water off the Pacific coast in British Columbia. It offers visitors the chance to get in touch with nature in its many parks and public spaces. You can go whale watching, visit the grizzly bear sanctuary, or catch sight of eagles free wheeling on the air currents. For those who prefer city over nature, there are many museums, galleries and shops in the area to explore.

Day 13 (Friday) – At Sea: Swim, take in a show, try your luck in the casino—you can really relax and enjoy yourself today.

Day 14 (Saturday) – Debark and City Tour of Seattle, WA: Seattle is a place where the mountains and the oceans seem to have had a love affair and given birth to this wonderful, tree-filled city. Your City Tour will include highlights of this city spread out between streams, lakes and a river. You overnight at Holiday Inn (or similar accommodations) in Seattle area.

Day 15 (Sunday) – Seattle and Depart for Home: Your flight home will give you time to reflect on all the fabulous places you visited and memories you've made. You'll also have time to plan your next YMT vacation!
